

CALIFORNIA'S COMPREHENSIVE WATER PACKAGE INFORMATIONAL FORUMS

EVENT NOTICE

California's Comprehensive Water Package Informational Forum

Friday, March 12, 2010

7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Santa Ana, CA

Please join us for an informational forum that will discuss the comprehensive water package, which was passed by the legislature and signed by the Governor last year. The package contains four policy bills along with an $11.14 billion general obligation bond proposal that voters will consider on the November 2010 ballot.

- What: A special statewide series of water forums seeking to help build understanding for the many legislative aspects of the recently enacted California Comprehensive Water Package.
- Who: Water experts, state and local representatives, local opinion leaders and general public.
- When: Friday, March 12
7:30 a.m. to 9:30 am.
- Where: Bowers Museum
2002 N. Main Street
Santa Ana, CA 92706
www.bowers.org

This event is open to the general public and there is no charge for attending. A continental breakfast will be served

Forum hosts include the California Latino Water Coalition (CLWC), Association of California Water Agencies (ACWA) and State of California. Local event sponsor include, Orange County Water District and Municipal Water District of Orange County.

To RSVP, please call (916) 503-1411 or email bquintana@latinowater.com or Jennifer Persike at jenniferp@acwa.com. You may also visit our websites www.latinowater.com or www.acwa.com.