About the OC Water Summit

Currently in its 11th year, the OC Water Summit is an innovative, interactive forum that brings together hundreds of business professionals, elected officials, water industry stakeholders, and community leaders from throughout Southern California and beyond.

Co-hosted by the Municipal Water District of Orange County (MWD OC), Orange County Water District (OCWD), and the Disneyland Resort, this one-of-a-kind event engages participants in discussion on new and ongoing water supply challenges, water policy issues, and other important topics that impact our economy and public health.

Prominent authors, world-renowned experts and distinguished speakers will deliver presentations and engage in dialogue with participants on these critical issues.

By sponsoring the OC Water Summit, you are investing in water reliability for Southern California. A variety of sponsorship opportunities are available to meet your organization's strategic goals.

Please visit www.OCWaterSummit.com for more information.
